

Tea for Tous !

☒ Ouverture. At very long last! Soeur Marie has kindly decided to open her kind arms to The British Association: She provides the beautiful premises kept open to us by the most charming Soeur Danielle de Capelle, and the B. Association of M. provides the exquisite tea as well as the more than exquisite home-made cakes, most carefully prepared by the more than expert hands of Soeur Association Secretary, Aisling by name. All free of charge: quel bonheur!

☒ Soeur Presidente Chrissie is there too to embrace us all with her warmest smile and friendly welcome, the room is full of sunshine, both objective and subjective; and computer expert Soeur Bryony was there too to represent the electronic press...

☒ Coda. That was a succinct, but luminous account of our very first meeting ! But there have been and will be follow-ups: they will take place every first and third Friday of every month of the year between 2.30 and 4.30 p.m. Sorry to ram the point home with the finness of a sledge hammer, carefully wrapped up in high-quality cotton, but the Tea for Tous Event far outshines the BistroQ Happy H. get-togethers, probably because the Sun shines brighter on everybody's face and in all windows. Which most certainly is an extra Oeuvre de Soeur Marie! And there are high hopes that there will be SCRABBLE too. And other games. And even MINI-TALKS. We shall see what we shall see! But the tea was excellent...
